ORAL JUDGEMENT

The request of transfer need not be considered in view of the fact that the situation can be taken care of by directing the trial court to grant permanent exemption to the petitioner from appearing save and except where his presence is required in court. This would be the position when either his plea to be recorded or when his further statement is required to be recorded as he being the accused. Otherwise, the appearance of his advocate shall be accepted as his appearance and the matter shall be proceeded in accordance with law.

In view of this direction, nothing further requires to be done in the matter. Rule is made absolute to that extent only. Interim relief is vacated.
